What is a containerized energy storage system?

A Containerized Energy-Storage System, or CESS, is an innovative energy storage solution packaged within a modular, transportable container. It serves as a rechargeable battery system capable of storing large amounts of energy generated from renewable sources like wind or solar power, as well as from the grid during low-demand periods.

What is a Bess container?

The Bluesun 20-foot BESS Container is a powerful energy storage solution featuring battery status monitoring, event logging, dynamic balancing, and advanced protection systems. It also includes automatic fire detection and alarm systems, ensuring safe and efficient energy management.

Are energy storage containers a viable alternative to traditional energy solutions?

These energy storage containers often lower capital costs and operational expenses, making them a viable economic alternative to traditional energy solutions. The modular nature of containerized systems often results in lower installation and maintenance costs compared to traditional setups.

What is a mobile energy storage system?

On the construction site, there is no grid power, and the mobile energy storage is used for power supply. During a power outage, stored electricity can be used to continue operations without interruptions. Maximum safety utilizing the safe type of LFP battery (LiFePO<sub>4</sub>) combined with an intelligent 3-level battery management system (BMS);
