

Small liquid flow solar container battery

Overview

The quick summary: Engineers have developed a new water-based flow battery that makes rooftop solar storage more affordable, efficient, and safer than conventional lithium-ion systems, potentially replacing $10,000 setups with a cheaper alternative. Could a water-based 'flow battery' transform home solar energy?

Researchers in Australia have created a new kind of water-based “flow battery” that could transform how households store rooftop solar energy. Credit: Stock Monash scientists designed a fast, safe liquid battery for home solar. The system could outperform expensive lithium-ion options.

Could a water-based battery outperform a lithium-ion Solar System?

Follow us on Google, Discover, and News. Monash scientists designed a fast, safe liquid battery for home solar. The system could outperform expensive lithium-ion options. Engineers have created a new water-based battery designed to make rooftop solar storage in Australian homes safer, more affordable, and more efficient.

What is a flow battery?

Their next-generation “flow battery” opens the door to compact, high-performance battery systems for homes, and is expected to be much cheaper than current $10,000 lithium-ion systems. Flow batteries have been around for decades but have traditionally been used in large-scale energy storage due to their large size and slow charge speeds.

What is a solar flow battery?

A solar flow battery is a device that generates, stores, and redelivers renewable electricity from the sun in one device. Chemists at the University of Wisconsin-Madison and their collaborators have created a highly efficient and long-lasting version of this technology.
